The Wine Flight

Wine flight is an introduction to wine tasting to sample different varietals, regions, and wineries.
Presented to you at your table.

L' Hexagone

France is one of the most complex wine-growing countries and perhaps the most famous. It proudly claims to be the home of the world's finest wines, and you'd be hard pushed to argue against that, particularly with the French themselves! What is absolutely true is that this is a country steeped in winemaking history, boasting some of the most beautiful and impressive vineyards with their influence found all over the world today.

Starter

CHABLIS PREMIER CRU 'LES FOURNEAUX' SAMUEL BILLAUD, BURGUNDY, FRANCE 2018

Chablis is an historic wine-producing town and region in northern central France. It produces light, dry, white wines famed for their flinty minerality and crisp acidity. AOC Chablis wines are produced exclusively from the Chardonnay grape variety.

Main

CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET, DOMAINE JOUARD, BURGUNDY, FRANCE 2018

When it comes to the world's greatest white wines, the border between Chassagne and Puligny is the treasure at the end of the rainbow. Within a few hundred metres lie five wonderful Grands Crus, three of which are in Chassagne. They are led by the luscious Le Montrachet, to which Chassagne gained permission in 1879, along with Puligny, to hyphenate its name.

OR

GEWURZTRAMINER, TRIMBACH, ALSACE, FRANCE 2018

Located in the northeast of France, Alsace is something of a hidden treasure, known for its very aromatic, floral and spicy white wines. These white wines that make up over 90% of the region's production.

MARGAUX AC, MAISON SICHEL, BORDEAUX, FRANCE 2016

Margaux is an important appellation in the Haut-Médoc district of Bordeaux, south western France. Located 25 kilometers (15 miles) north of the city of Bordeaux, the appellation is famous for producing supple, perfumed wines, predominantly from Cabernet Sauvignon.

Dessert

MONBAZILLAC, CHATEAU RAMON, BORDEAUX, FRANCE 2018

Monbazillac, pronounced 'mohn-baz-ee-YAK,' is a French town (with fewer than 1,000 residents) as well its surrounding commune. It's also an appellation for sweet wines produced in that region. Today, this wine is appreciated by the English, devoured by the Dutch, and poured frequently within Parisian restaurants. Historically, in the 13th century, Monbazillac wine was renowned among English who then occupied the Aquitaine—a massive chunk of southwestern France. Today Monbazillac is one of the most renowned wines within the administrative 'department' known as Dordogne, and over seven million bottles are produced each year.
